WATER NOTICES.

WATER NOTICE.

DIVERSION AND USE.

TAKE NOTICE that The Keremeos Irrigation District, whose address is Keremeos, B.C., will apply for a Class C licence to take and use 28 cubic feet per second of water out of Ashnola River, which flows northerly and drains into Similkameen River about 7 miles above Keremeos, B.C.

The water will be diverted from the stream at a point about 1 mile from the southern end of the bridge over the Similkameen River at Ashnola, and will be used for irrigation purposes upon the lands within the territorial limits of the Keremeos Irrigation District, as published in the B.C. Gazette under date of June 12th, 1930.

The said water will be used during the months of October and November for fall irrigation and during the months of February and March for spring irrigation.

The petition for the approval of the undertaking as per section 26 of the “Water Act” will be heard in the office of the Water Board at a date to be fixed by the Water Comptroller, and any person interested may file an objection thereto in the office of the Comptroller or of the Water Recorder of the district.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 12th day of August, 1931.

A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the “Water Act” will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Princeton, B.C.

Objections to the application may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

NOTICE is hereby given that "McKenzie & Fraser, Limited," was incorporated under the "Companies Act" on the 7th day of August, 1931.

The authorized capital of the Company is twenty-five thousand dollars, divided into two hundred and fifty shares.

The address of its registered office is 752 Columbia Street, New Westminster, British Columbia.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(1.) To purchase and take over as a going concern the business now being carried on by D. K. McKenzie and D. G. Fraser, situate at No. 752 and No. 603 Columbia Street, City of New Westminster, Province of British Columbia (being fruit, candy, tobacco (retail and wholesale), and lunch-counter, store, billiard and pool rooms); and to acquire all the stock on hand, machinery, equipment, store furniture and fixtures, book debts, cash on hand and at bank, good-will, and all other assets of whatsoever nature, and to assume all liabilities, including accounts payable, bank loan (if any), contracts or undertakings, and all other liabilities of whatsoever nature relating to the aforementioned stores; and to pay for such business either in cash or shares, or partly in cash and partly in shares, as may be determined:

(2.) To carry on a business as candy and chocolate manufacturers and agents, and to manufacture soft drinks, such as lemonade, soda-water, ginger ale, and all other soft drinks of whatsoever nature; to operate lunch-counter, restaurant, purveyors, general caterers of light refreshments of all kinds; to operate pool-room, billiards, and bowling-alleys, skating-rinks, and other forms of games or entertainment which can be carried on legally in connection with the business; to buy and sell tobaccos, cigars, cigarettes, and all other goods of such nature, either wholesale or retail; and to handle all other goods, wholesale or retail, of a like nature which may be handled to the general benefit of the Company:

(3.) To act as factors and agents for any person, persons, or corporation dealing in the materials and products above mentioned or any of them:

(4.) To purchase or acquire in any way whatsoever real estate or any interest therein or arising therefrom, and to sell, lease, exchange, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the same:

(5.) To buy, sell, manufacture, let or hire, export, and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purpose of any of the businesses hereinbefore mentioned, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in such business, or which may be capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(6.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the consideration or purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(7.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property, patents, licences, brevets d'invention, concessions, contracts, agencies, or any other rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(8.) To lend money on any terms that may be thought fit, and particularly to customers, shareholders, or directors of this Company, or other persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the contracts or engagements of any such persons:

(9.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, whether promoted by this Company for the purpose or not, and to improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(10.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and by or through agents, sub-contractors, trustees, or otherwise:

(11.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or any other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture articles in the making of which timber or wood is required or can be utilized:

(14.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of or otherwise turn to account, letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, subject to royalty or otherwise, and whether exclusive or non-exclusive or limited, or any part interest in such letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, whether in the Dominion of Canada or in any other part of the world, and to manufacture and produce, trade and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges as aforesaid:

(15.) To advance money to any person or persons or corporation, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold or leasehold estate by way of mortgage or upon any marketable security:

(16.) To acquire the good-will of any business and to acquire or undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and take over as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(17.) To promote or form or assist in the promotion or formation of any companies, businesses, or undertakings having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property of the Company or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies' businesses or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or disposing of shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, and further to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any prospectus, circular, or notice connected with this or any other company:

(18.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any municipal, public, or local board or authority; provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares, or in loans upon the security thereof:

(19.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the "Bank Act," bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(20.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-money, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, effects, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(21.) Generally to carry on any other business, except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company:

(22.) To apply for in the name of the Company or other corporation or person, promote, support, and obtain, in Canada or elsewhere in the world, from any Government or other authority, any Act of Parliament, charter, provincial or other order, concessions, grants from the Government, or authorization for enabling the Company or any other corporation or person to carry into effect any of the objects of the Company, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any Bills, orders, proceedings, or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company.

(g.) To acquire, either by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise, any improved or unimproved lands in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over and in connection with land, and to lease, sell, exchange, or mortgage or otherwise deal with or encumber any such lands or any interest therein, and to build, contract for, or construct any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company, and to use, manage, lease, sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same:

(h.) To acquire by purchase, exchange, or otherwise any personal property, chattels, chattels real, fixtures, or other effects required in connection with the Company's business or undertaking or otherwise, and to sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(i.) To invest, lend, or deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(k.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company at present or hereafter acquired or its uncalled capital; and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, and chattel mortgages, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, or other obligations:

(l.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets to any person, firm, or company and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities, of any other company:

(m.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (Provincial, local, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(n.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, stock or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(o.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(p.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(q.) To establish or promote any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operations which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(r.) To guarantee the obligations of any companies or persons carrying on any business or operations which shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and in particular, and without limiting the generality of the foregoing words, to guarantee the payment of dividends on shares or the payment of interest on debentures of any such company, and to guarantee the payment of moneys secured by or payable under or in respect of contracts, mortgages, charges, obligations, or securities of any such person or company, and the due performance and discharge of any and all contracts by any such person or company:

(s.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company or in the conduct of its business, or in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(w.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada or in any of the United States of America or in any other country or place:

(x.) To establish depots in any part of Canada or in any other country for the carrying-on of the said business:

(y.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in conjunction with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(z.) To aid in the establishment and support of associations or institutions calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company; to provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company, or formerly in the employment of the Company, and the widows and children of such persons and others dependent on them, by granting moneys or pensions, providing schools, reading-rooms, places of recreation, or subscribing to sick or benefit clubs or societies; to subscribe for or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects or any exhibition, and generally for any purpose which may seem likely, whether directly or indirectly, to promote the development of the business of the Company or to prevent its contraction, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(aa.) To do or engage in any of the aforesaid matters or things, whether the same may be necessary or convenient for or incidental to the main business or objects of the Company or otherwise howsoever.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
